Fresh from the yard, this 55m custom-built motor yacht from Baglietto boasts a striking white and blue hull and the soft and sleek lines synonymous with the Italian builder's traditional T-line series.

Francesco Paszkowski Design is responsible for the exemplary design both inside and out, with expert help from Margherita Casprini in creating the luxurious interiors.

SEVERIN*S can accommodate 12 guests in six cabins including a huge Master Suite with a private office, one double cabin and one twin/convertible cabin on the main deck.

Two VIP cabins are hidden away on the lower deck, while there's a final multipurpose area on the bridge deck that can either serve as a sixth cabin or convert into a massage room or a play area.

The incredible sun deck offers 160 square metres of socialising space, encompassing a large sunbathing area to the stern, a swimming pool and a bar. A perfect setting for soaking up the Mediterranean sunshine.
