Newly delivered in 2021 by Heesen Yachts, Moskito offers power, performance and huge interior volume for a 180ft (55m) yacht. Moskito's Fast Displacement Hull Form designed by Van Oossanen Naval Architects makes her exceptionally fuel-efficient for long passages and shorter cruising.

A contemporary interior by the esteemed Bannenberg & Rowell studio is paired with a lower deck relaxation area with a sauna and steam room. The beach club aft provides waterside seclusion for both watersports enthusiasts and those looking to make the most of onboard living. As the fourth incarnation in Heesen's successful 55-metre Steel Class this Dutch pedigree yacht possesses enlarged guest cabins, an 82sqm master suite and a range of 4,500 nautical miles for endless days spent cruising the big blue.

Alongside a wave-piercing bow, Moskito impresses with her exterior deck space. For sun worshippers, the 100sqm sun deck offers far-reaching panoramic views. Guests can take a dip in the jacuzzi, dine al fresco on the onboard chef's gourmet delicacies or seek solace from the midday sun under the shaded hardtop.

Reflecting the modern trend for an innovative use of onboard glass, the full-beam sky lounge delivers panoramic vistas in a cosy, light-filled setting. Floor-to-ceiling glass sliding doors lead directly to the bridge deck aft where further exterior dining options can be found.

When underway, few places rival the bow seating area for authentic, wind-swept exhilaration. But it's in the lower deck spa, accessed via the beach club, where Moskito's amenities come alive. Move from ocean to sauna in just a few steps. Soak up the zen ambience on sun loungers or indulge in some early morning yoga to feel energised throughout the day.
